

Equity Plan for auditorium

Our auditorium stage is not readily accessible for individuals in wheelchairs. If we have someone who needs to get on the stage they will use the east entrance of the building and enter the stage through the door on the north side of the auditorium. This will allow individuals to have access to the stage in a safe and effective manner.